Southwestern Research Journal (SRJ)

(A Peer-Reviewed Multidisciplinary Research Journal)

In the ever-evolving landscape of academia, research serves as the cornerstone of innovation, shaping the way we understand and navigate our world. The Southwestern Research Journal takes pride in providing a dynamic platform for researchers across diverse disciplines to contribute to this collective pursuit of knowledge. As we embark on the journey towards our second volume in 2024, we extend a warm invitation to scholars and visionaries to share their groundbreaking work with our global community.

Southwestern Research Journal (SRJ) is a double-blind peer-review journal published by the Research Management Cell of Southwestern State College, Basundhara, Kathmandu. SRJ aims to disseminate very high-quality research in the interdisciplinary area of management and social sciences along with science and medicine. The SRJ invites contribution from researchers in Nepal as well as from all over the world. SRJ accepts very high-quality research articles from an excellently designed study and with findings that have potential to make a high impact on the respective field of study as measurable by citation in scholarly articles, and discussions in forums of concerned stakeholders. SRJ accepts only the articles with similarity index less than ten percent.

Our commitment to excellence is unwavering — we embrace only the highest quality submissions that demonstrate originality, depth, and scholarly rigor. The Southwestern Research Journal is not just a publication; it's a celebration of intellectual curiosity and a testament to the transformative power of research. By submitting your work to our journal, you join a distinguished community of scholars dedicated to advancing the frontiers of knowledge.

Submit your work today and become a part of a scholarly journey that transcends boundaries, connecting minds and ideas for a brighter tomorrow.
